COURSE DESCRIPTION: REIMAGING YOUTH MINISTRY

This course explores the historical and contemporary dimensions and challenges of ministry to people in middle school and high school (6th-12th grade). The first part of the course examines the principles, foundations and history of youth ministry and Pastoral Juvenil Hispana with adolescents. The second part of the course addresses the developmental needs of young people and studies their diverse cultural realities in contemporary society. The last section of the course offers practical applications for developing effective ministry and outreach strategies and investigates models of accompaniment of young people—whether active, unchurched or disaffiliated—as they explore their faith and beliefs.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

This course addresses the following Goals and Objectives of the GPPM Program:

- Objective 2A: Students will demonstrate a depth of practical and theoretical knowledge in their area of concentration.
- Objective 3A: Students will employ historically informed knowledge of the tradition to assess theological positions and pastoral issues.

Course Work:

1. Informed and Engaged Class Participation: Attendance is expected at all face-to-face and online classes. Thoughtful and reflective participation is expected, including sharing comments and questions throughout the course and via Camino, our online class platform. The use of video-conferencing software to record or replace in-person attendance is not allowed, except in exceptional circumstances with the permission of the instructor and Program Director.

2. Written Work: Written work will be evaluated on quality of content, organization, clarity of expression, grammatical correctness, and appropriate citations.
  - a. Reflection paper: Due by Friday, February 11, 2022. (4-5 pages; double-spaced, 12 pt. font; submit via Camino). The purpose of this paper is to articulate and integrate insights from your reading and our class discussion specifically around innovative ways to minister to young people in a culturally diverse and more secular setting. Prominent question for reflection: How does ministry to young people need to change in light of realities of young people today? Considering the immense growth of the Latinx Catholic community, how do we shift traditional anglo-centric youth ministry to reach out to Latinx youth? Other questions for your consideration will be posed in class sessions. Be sure to reference and quote assigned readings up to this point in the class in the reflection paper to show knowledge and understanding of the subject matter.
3. Final Project and Class Presentation: (15 min.) Each student will select a topic of particular interest or concern regarding youth ministry in their existing ministry. In consultation with the instructor, the student will develop a specific project: for example, it might be a redesign of an existing youth ministry program, an intentional plan to reach the “Nones,” ministering to Latinx youth, etc. There is a lot of room for creativity on this project. The key is that this project be something that you can implement in your ministry. I am not interested in a purely theoretical project, but one that is practical and realistic. On the day of our last Saturday session, students will give a brief (15 minute) presentation on the project. A written report is required that documents the scope and development of the project (8-10 pages). PowerPoint presentations and other media tools are required and should be submitted along with the paper. Guidelines will be presented in class.

If you have already arranged accommodations through Disabilities Resources, please discuss them with me during my office hours. While I am happy to assist you, I am unable to provide accommodations until I have received verification from Disabilities Resources. The Disabilities Resources office will work with students and faculty to arrange proctored exams for students whose accommodations include double time for exams and/or assisted technology. (Students with approved accommodations of time-and-a-half should talk with me as soon as possible). Disabilities Resources must be contacted in advance to schedule proctored examinations or to arrange other accommodations. The Disabilities Resources office would be grateful for advance notice of at least two weeks. For more information you may contact Disabilities Resources at 408-554-4109.

If you require the recording of classroom lectures, discussions, simulations, and other course-related activity for a documented disability, make arrangements through Disabilities Resources (see below) and discuss this with the instructor. If for some reason other than disability you would like to record the class, please seek the permission of the instructor first, and then of the class.
