A GRADUATE SCHOOL OF SANTA CLARA UNIVERSITY

Arrupe Scholarship Application

The Jesuit School of Theology awards a number of full-tuition Arrupe Scholarships to full-time lay students accepted into the Master of Divinity program beginning in the Fall Semester. The scholarships are for three years, which is the length of the Master of Divinity program. The Master of Divinity Program at JST prepares students for effective ministry where it is most needed. The ability to interact with people of faith from diverse classes and cultures is key to this ministry and to addressing the social and economic challenges of people's daily lives. Experience or demonstrated interest in working in such settings will be important in determining scholarship recipients. Minorities and women are encouraged to apply. The deadline for Arrupe Scholarship applications is March 1st.
