

2020-2021 Job Description

Division of Student Life

Neighborhood Ambassadors are peer leaders who serve as student members of the Off Campus Student Life team and work under the direction of the Off Campus Area Coordinator. The Neighborhood Ambassador position has been designed to support community development and to provide a student presence as the liaison between students living off campus and the University. A Neighborhood Ambassador will contribute to the development of the off campus community by assisting with the personal development of off campus residents; encouraging responsibility and student safety; promoting and supporting an inclusive environment in which differences are thoughtfully explored while working collaboratively to build a community. In addition, Ambassadors provide an essential communication link between students and the University. Ambassadors are expected to know and uphold University policies and community standards, and encourage responsible citizenship by modeling such.

The following document describes the job responsibilities, qualifications for application, selection, conditions of employment, and compensation for the Neighborhood Ambassador position.
